Re: Made Man Foundation

Dear Made Man Foundation:

As one of this year's Made Man honorees for the New York Metro Area, I write to offer feedback on The Made Man Foundation based on my recent interaction with the organization.

Overall, the experience I had with the Foundation was excellent. Each team member I met was engaging, friendly, and effective in their role. The same applies for the vendors involved in the video interviews for honorees. Also, all of the events were well-conceived, thoughtfully executed, and worthwhile. The day of the ceremony was certainly jam-packed, but everything on the agenda proved meaningful.

In addition, I must commend Dee for her communication leading up to the ceremony day. She repeatedly provided extensive information about the itinerary, as well as all of the tasks that honorees needed to complete. Responsiveness, likewise, proved to be one of her strengths. Any time I had a question, Dee replied quickly, and with the requested information.

Similarly, Ky served as an outstanding ambassador for the organization. Her remarks at the various events on the day of the ceremony brought a heartwarming silence to the room. The courage, vision, and leadership she has shown as founder of the organization are incredible. While she has endured significantly difficult circumstances in life, she has used them as fuel to inspire and achieve positive change.

In short, I sincerely appreciate every aspect of my engagement with The Made Man Foundation. From mentoring students to meeting the other Made Man honorees, I could not have asked for a more fulfilling, inspiring experience. Thank you, Ky, Dee, and the rest of the team, for all that you are doing for communities nationwide and across the world!

Sincerely,
